

Namulondo Jane's Story

Namulondo Jane is a retail shop owner in Komamboga who supports herself and her household through her small business. Working from inside her shop, she provides everyday goods to members of her community while maintaining a steady source of income. Her work reflects her dedication to serving local needs and building financial stability, as she continues to grow her business and strengthen her livelihood.