

Nakagiri Matildah's Story

Nakagiri Matildah is a boutique owner based at Ham Shopping Mall, where she runs her retail business with a focus on providing clothing and fashion items to her community. Working from her boutique, she serves customers while building a steady source of income through her entrepreneurial efforts. Her business reflects her dedication to meeting local demand and growing her enterprise, as she continues to strengthen her financial stability and expand her opportunities.